SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

Amendment to the April 10, 2013 General Order Re:

John A. Clarke, Executive Officer/Clerk
[Signature], Deputy
GLORIA A. PEDREGON

Distribution of Criminal and Traffic and Non-Traffic Infraction Cases in Certain Courthouses

After additional consultation with members of the public, law enforcement and justice partners, that portion of the General Order of April 10, 2013 regarding the Catalina Island Courthouse is amended as follows:

Catalina Island Courthouse - 215 Sumner Avenue, Avalon

The Catalina Island Courthouse currently accepts for filing and hears one-day-per-week limited felony and misdemeanor cases, and traffic and non-traffic infractions cases.

New matters formerly accepted for filing and heard at the Catalina Island Courthouse will, as of June 14, 2013, be filed and heard at the Long Beach Courthouse as follows: (a) felony cases; (b) all in-custody misdemeanor cases; and (c) infractions by non-residents of Catalina Island that are directly cited to appear by a law enforcement agency.

All out of custody misdemeanor cases filed and traffic and non-traffic infractions cited by the prosecutor will continue to be filed and hearings will be conducted every other Friday at the Catalina Island Courthouse, commencing on June 14, 2013. In addition, infractions issued to residents of Catalina Island that are directly cited to appear by a law enforcement agency will be heard every other Friday at the Catalina Island Courthouse, commencing on June 14, 2013.

All pending felony cases, all in-custody misdemeanor cases and all direct-file infractions alleging violations by non-residents of Catalina Island will be transferred to the Long Beach Courthouse as of June 14, 2013.

Out of custody misdemeanors and infractions that are not directly cited to appear will be filed and heard at the Catalina Island Courthouse.

Defendants in these transferred cases who have been previously ordered to appear at the Catalina Island Courthouse are ordered to report to the appropriate courthouse for any appearance on or after June 14, 2013.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: April 30, 2013
