Petitioner,
On Habeas Corpus

Nature of Proceedings: CITY ATTORNEY'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO INTERVENE
AND RECONSIDERATION AND VACATING PRIOR ENDORSEMENT OF THE PETITIONER'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Matter called for hearing on involvement of prosecutorial agencies during the Court's review of a humane society's petition for endorsement of its articles of incorporation. This Court has been requested by the Office of the Los Angeles City Attorney and , the Office of the Los Angeles District Attorney who have joined with the City Attorney, that this Court reconsider and vacate its endorsement of AIC's articles of incorporation entered on April 10, 2007.

The Court advises all counsel for the People of its past association with attorney David B. Casselman. All parties state to the Court that they determine there is no conflict of interest and elect to proceed.

As more fully reflected in the notes of the official court reporter, the Court states that it has reviewed all motions and memorandums of points and authorities filed by counsel for intervenor's and by counsel for plaintiff, i.e. Animal Cruelty Investigations, Inc. Argument is commenced.

Later: Both counsel stipulate that this matter be continued for the Court to conduct a limited evidentiary hearing with both sides to informally exchange documents and declarations of participating witnesses prior to the next court proceeding in this matter.

On stipulation of all parties, the matter is ordered continued to the date of February 21, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. in Department 100.

All parties directed to return on said date.
