BLANKET ORDER RE:
PUBLICATION OF MISSING
AND ABDUCTED FOSTER
CHILDREN ON INTERNET
WEBSITE

15 In order to facilitate the return of missing or abducted children who are under the jurisdiction
16 of the Juvenile Court, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors requests permission to create
17 an Internet website that lists the names and photographs of such children.

18
19 UPON CONSIDERATION of the request and responses thereto, the Juvenile Court finds that
20 the quick location and return of missing children who are under the jurisdiction of the Court is a
21 matter of compelling interest and critical to the safety and well-being of such children. Therefore,
22 the Court issues the following order pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 827:

- 23
24 1. When a child under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court is missing or reasonably believed
25 to have been abducted, the County of Los Angeles is authorized to place identifying 26 information about that child on an Internet website for the purpose of facilitating the child's 27 location and return.

2. For purposes of this order, "identifying information" includes, but is not limited to, the names of missing or abducted children and their family members, photographs or other likeness of such persons, and any other information reasonably calculated to facilitate identification or return of missing or abducted children to the County's custody.

3. Once a missing or abducted child has been located and returned to the County's custody, information regarding the child shall be removed from the website.

4. This order shall remain in effect until it is revoked or otherwise amended on the motion of the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court or at the request of any interested parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: 12/31/02

MICHAEL NASH
Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court
