The parent or guardian must use such earnings to pay all liabilities incurred by the minor under the contract, including, but not limited to, payments for taxes on all earnings, including taxes on the amounts set aside, and payments for personal or professional services rendered to the minor or the business related to the contract. (Since the law requires that 15% of the minor's gross earnings be set aside in a blocked account, these obligations must be paid out of the remaining 85% payable under the contract.) Section 6752(d) also provides that nothing therein alters the parent or guardian's existing responsibilities to provide for the support of the minor child."
