Applicants must satisfy all selection requirements at the time of filing.

ELIGIBILITY LIST: Persons who successfully pass the required examination(s) will be placed on an eligible list in descending score order. First consideration for hiring will be given to the highest ranking candidates. Placement on the eligible list does not guarantee an offer of employment; the Court can consider your candidacy as long as the list is valid. Eligible lists are normally valid for a year but may be extended or deactivated sooner to best meet the needs of the Court.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION: Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008, as amended, applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process may contact Human Resources at (213) 633-0377. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, all persons hired after November 6, 1986, are required to present to the Court, at the time of appointment, original documents which show satisfactory proof of: 1) identity and 2) U.S. Citizenship or a legal right to work permanently in the United States.

SALARIES: New employees are generally placed at the first step of the salary range with advancement within the range upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period. Subsequent increases up to the top step of the salary range will occur annually upon receipt of satisfactory performance ratings or as otherwise dictated by established pay provisions. All salaries are subject to payroll deductions.

BENEFITS: Regular employees are eligible to receive a variety of benefits including health insurance, vacation, and holiday leave, deferred compensation, mileage reimbursement, bilingual pay, evening and night shift salary differential and more. Additional insurance and benefits are available for management positions.

RETIREMENT: Full-time, regular status employees receive a retirement plan. Court employees do not participate in Social Security. Employee contributions to the retirement system may be withdrawn upon separation from employment.

If the candidate is a "new member" of the Los Angeles County Employees Retirement Association's (LACERA) defined benefit plan on or after January 1, 2013, the Public Employees Pension Reform Act (PEPRA) limits that person's pension. For these purposes, a "new member" is someone who first becomes a member of LACERA on or after January 1, 2013 - that is, someone first employed by the Court on or after December 1, 2012 - unless she or he established reciprocity with another public retirement system in which she or he was a member before January 1, 2013. EMPLOYMENT PROTECTION: As of January 1, 2001, the Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act provides employment protection for almost all Court employees. CHILD SUPPORT COMPLIANCE PROGRAM: In effort to improve compliance with court-ordered child, family, and spousal support obligations, certain employment and identification information (i.e., name, address, social security number and date of hire) is regularly reported to the State Directory of New Hires, which may assist in locating persons who owe these obligations. Applicants will not be disqualified from employment based on this information.
