FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

McCOURTNEY JUVENILE JUSTICE CENTER CLOSED DUE TO FLOODING

Sometime over the weekend, pipes burst in the second floor restroom of the Alfred J. McCourtney Juvenile Justice Center, causing flooding on the first floor. The courthouse, located at 1040 W. Avenue J, Lancaster, 93534, will be closed until a full assessment of the damage can be made.

All court operations have been temporarily moved to the Michael Antonovich Antelope Valley Courthouse, located at 42011 4th Street West, Lancaster, 93534. Tomorrow, court staff will be available in the lobby, just past weapons screening, to direct families to the appropriate courtroom.

People with business at the McCourtney location should check the Court's website, lacourt.org, for updates as new information becomes available.
