VIRTUAL LAUNCH OF NEW JUDICIAL MENTOR PROGRAM TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 9

Attorneys Seeking More Information About How to Participate in New Mentorship Program Urged to Attend

Presiding Judge Kevin C. Brazile and Presiding Judge-Elect Eric C. Taylor, along with Judicial Appointments Secretary Martin Jenkins, are hosting a virtual kick-off meeting of the new Judicial Mentor Program at 5 p.m. on November 9. Other key judicial officers also will participate.

The purpose of this new program is to assist in the recruitment and development of a qualified, inclusive and diverse judicial applicant pool. This much-needed program was designed by Los Angeles Superior Court judges in collaboration with the Office of Governor Gavin Newsom.

The program is designed to identify, encourage and provide mentors for all individuals considering a judicial career. One of the chief goals is to communicate to all sectors of the legal community the uniform message of Governor Newsom's judicial criteria and commitment to appointing a capable bench reflective of California's rich diversity.

WHAT: Virtual Launch of Judicial Mentor Program

WHEN: 5 p.m. on November 9, 2020
