FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: UPDATE
October 10, 2022

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY'S OCTOBER 13 FACILITY STRATEGIC PLAN OVERVIEW PRESENTATION TO THE BAR IS POSTPONED

Presiding Judge Eric C. Taylor today announced the Court is postponing the virtual facility strategic plan overview presentation originally scheduled for October 13. The virtual session, which will be hosted along with Los Angeles County Bar Association President Ann I. Park, will be rescheduled to give the Court more time to prepare a more expansive and informative presentation to the Bar and justice partners on this important facility blueprint for the future.

The Court will provide notice of a new date, when scheduled, for this presentation related to the long-term facility needs associated with the Stanley Mosk Courthouse and the Clara Shortridge Foltz Criminal Justice Center. The Court remains committed to seeking feedback from the Bar and justice partners and looks forward to sharing its vision when a new date is scheduled.
