SUPERIOR COURT OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY CONNECTIVITY ISSUES: UPDATE

The Superior Court of Los Angeles County continues to experience system-wide connectivity issues that are impacting the Court's ability to conduct business. Please see below for urgent updates regarding court services. Further updates will be communicated as the situation is assessed.

Courthouses Remain Open:

All courthouses and clerk's offices remain open. Court staff are available to assist and answer questions in person.

Court Cases Calendared for Today:

Matters unable to be heard today due to connectivity issues will be continued. Litigants whose matters are unable to be heard today will be provided with notice of a continuance date. Last day criminal matters (preliminary hearings and trials) and statutorily-sensitive arraignments and hearings in the juvenile division will be addressed.

Electronic Filing Remains Available:

The Court continues to accept electronic filing (efiling). Self-represented litigants exempt from efiling may continue to file in person at the Clerk's Office.

Call Centers Down:

Due to connectivity issues the Court's Call Centers are currently down. The Court is working to reestablish connection and will provide further updates later.

The Court continues to assess the issue and is working to reestablish connectivity. More information will be shared when available.
